

Workforce Development

MASCO members are committed to training their future workforce and offer over 200 adult incumbent worker and community adult and youth training programs, serving over 27,000 individuals annually. For information on workforce development programs in the LMA, contact the workforce development or human resources department at the institution you are interested in.